

ROAD TO BIBLICAL SHALOM

Breaking Bondage in
Your Community

A seven day prayer guide

OUR PRAYER

Our prayer in providing this resource is to see individuals, communities, and cities changed by the power of Jesus Christ. “This is eternal life, that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent” (John 17:3). We believe transformation happens as people see Christ accurately and rightly value Him.

THE GOSPEL

The Gospel of Jesus Christ comes with the promise of freedom. God’s love is redemptive, restorative, and transformational. We read in 2 Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, and see, the new has come!”

THE CHURCH

The Church is called to stand in the gap (Ezekiel 22:30) and intercede for those who cannot pray for themselves. We can and must ask the Holy Spirit to stir hearts and open minds to the truth of God’s word. We unite in prayer for our neighbors, to seek the well-being of the cities in which we live, and to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ.

COMMUNITY INTERCESSION

LOVE

Think and pray about why you love the community where God has placed you.

RESPOND

Think, pray, and act. Write down the actions God is calling you to enact for your community.

LAMENT

Think and pray about those things in your community that cause you to lament. Consider the brokenness and hurt that you see and the different ways that the Adversary and sin wounds and oppresses your neighbor.

REPENT

Think and pray about the community’s sins and the idolatry that must be vocalized for healing to take place. The word of God consistently relates the confession of sin to healing and restoration. (1 John 1:9)

“Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is very powerful in its effect.”

James 5:16

We encourage you to use these practical ways to intercede for your community. Gather in groups of intercessors and take these prayer starters to the streets of your community. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you as you consider your ways and let your heart be aligned with the Father’s heart.

Resurrection

Jesus the Resurrection has risen from the dead. He has given us a new life; a living hope; and an imperishable inheritance.

“Because of his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you.”

1 Peter 1:3-4

Come near to God in prayer on behalf of those in your community who are: incarcerated and their families

Pray that the families, the spouses, and the children of prisoners would be sustained, protected, provided for, and honored rightly.

Pray that those released from prison would find help, community, wisdom and strength to live godly, abundant lives.

Pray that people in jails and prisons will hear the gospel and follow Christ. Ask God to subdue the powers of the evil one who holds people in darkness.
